

Vicki Lind's Colorful Job History

1959	Created a neighborhood newspaper, The Taylor's Ferry Herald (Portland, OR)
1963	Sold overpriced alligator purses on Fifth Avenue (Manhattan, NY)
1964	Planned programs in camp for Hispanic mothers and children (Chicago, IL)
1965	Picked peaches (Israel)
1966	Helped in camp for homeless people (France)
1967	Assisted in day treatment for the mentally ill (San Francisco, CA)
1968	Temp (San Francisco, CA)
1969	Taught day care for African-American children (Oakland, CA)
1970	Mothered Jessica and Miriam and lived on a commune (San Francisco, CA and Mist, OR)
1971	Fire Watcher (Mist, OR) and Craft Seller at craft fairs (Portland, OR)
1974-1976	Head Start Education Coordinator (Astoria, OR)
1977-1981	Taught parenting classes at Clatsop County Mental Health (Astoria, OR)
1977-1981	Taught early childhood education and psychology at Clatsop CC (Astoria, OR)
1980-1981	Student Advisor (Linfield College in Albany, OR and Astoria, OR)
1981-1999	Director of Adult Degree Program (Linfield College, McMinnville, OR)
1999	Career Consultant for outplacement firm Drake, Beam, Morin (Vancouver, WA and San Jose, CA)
2004-2005	Career Resource Center Coordinator for PCC (Portland, OR)
2002-2008	Recruited in-home Caregivers, Caregiver Connection (Portland, OR)
2000-Present	Career Counselor and Marketing Coach in Private Practice (Portland, OR)
2006-Present	Workshop and course presenter for Portland Community College, The Natural Step Network, International Association of Sustainability Professionals